Both answers together

123 of 150 82%

Each of you answers fifteen questions on a 0 to 10 scale, so each of you has a score out of 150. The figure above is the average of your two scores. It is a summary of what you each said on one day, not a measure of your marriage.

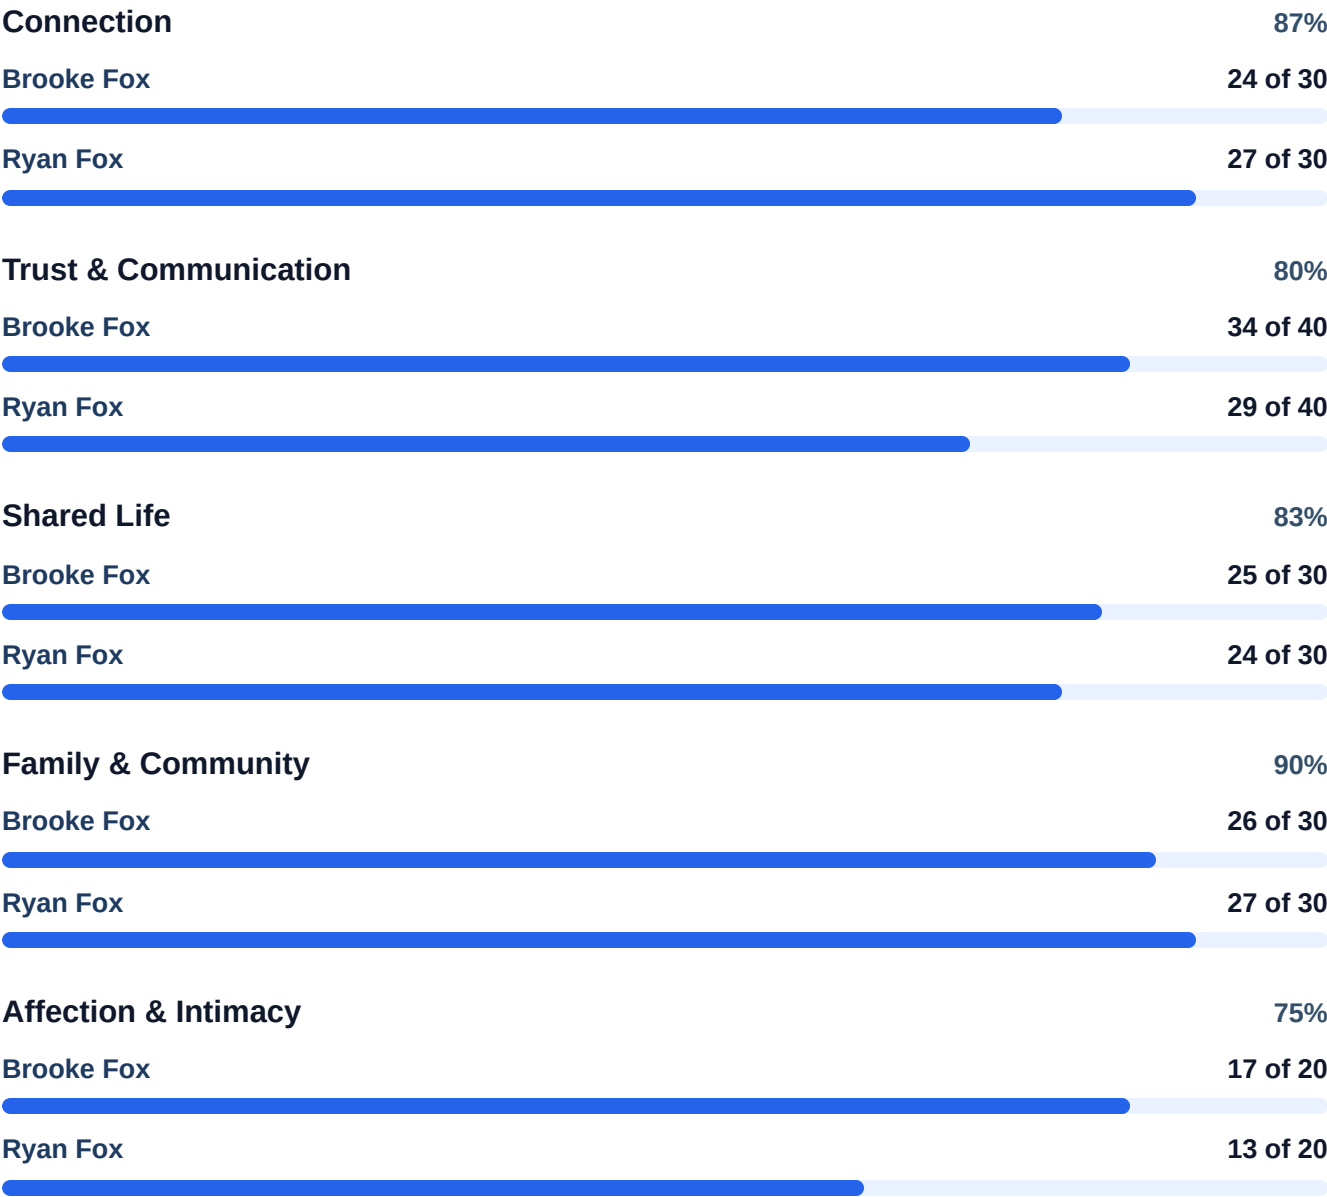

Compared with last time

You last answered these questions on March 21, 2026. This is the change in what each of you reported, nothing more. It is not evidence that the marriage improved or declined.
